One of the leading social events of the month which took place this week was the marriage of Miss Theresa Ogden to Mrs. Heber J. Heiner of Morgan City, Utah. The ceremony which linked the two happy young lives together in a wedlock was performed in the Logan Temple Wednesday afternoon. They returned to Ogden and were given an elegant reception at the home of the bride's parents, 248 Twenty-fourth street, Thursday evening, which was participated in by a large circle of their relatives and friends. The evening passed pleasantly by at music, games and social chat. A bounteous wedding repast was served. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and potted plants. Many beautiful gifts were bestowed upon the happy couple. The bride is a talented and charming young lady stenographer of Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Heine. The groom is a promising and highly esteemed young man of Morgan City, Utah, son of President Heiner of the Morgan stake. They both have a host of friends who will be pleased to extend congratulations for a joyous and prosperous life. Mr. and Mrs. Heiner will make their future home at Morgan City.

The club women of Ogden entertained Tuesday evening in a very pleasing way at the Presbyterian church, for the benefit of the state free traveling libraries. A very fine musical program was carried out in which Miss Lulu Mitchell, Mrs. F. A. Jones, J. A. Smith and Mr. Lindsey took part, and the Madison school orchestra. Mesdames A. B. Corey, E. O. Wattis, H. M. Bond, H. F. Horton, C. E. Coulter, J. G. Paine and Frank Townie, in an amusing manner impersonated various prominent characters in literature. FOR AFTERNOON

This combination of cloth and lace would have been thought more or less impossible only a few short seasons ago, and that the two should be combined in a tailored product seemed the very last thing that might be expected. The gown is of pearl chiffon cloth, in which a hand-made Flemish lace is inset, with leaf motifs cut from the cloth. The lace is so fashioned that it forms set designs on the gown. The blouse is altogether of the lace, mounted over chiffon and blousing very slightly all around over a deep pointed girdle of ombre rose ribbon. The upper and lower ribbons are rose pink and the center one a Jacqueminot red.
